

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

THE ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

August 14, 1956

Dear Allen:

Many thanks for your note of August tenth and the enclosed letter concerning possible intelligence briefings to be given during the months ahead.

Discussion of this possibility developed the feeling that it would seem most desirable to come to a decision after the nominees have been selected. I shall be in touch with you again as soon as possible when that has taken place.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,
